

Acknowledgments

This work would not be possible without the support from many institutions who helped us make this project possible.

First, we would like to convey our gratitude to Higher Education Commission (HEC) for financial and administrative support. We want to express our deep gratitude to Dr. Mukhtar Ahmed Chairman HEC and Dr. Safdar Ali Shah Director General of CPEC HEC Pakistan for their encouragement and guidance in completing this book.

We are particularly grateful to Engr. Prof. Dr. Ata Ullah Shah, Vice Chancellor, Karakoram International University who interacted with us rigorously throughout the whole editorial process and gave us input for improvements.

Moreover, we would like to extend our special thanks to Dr. Tasawar Baig, Associate Dean, Faculty of Social Sciences and Dr. Sajjad Haider, Director International Office at Karakoram International University who were instrumental in the initiation and transition of China Study Centre at Karakoram International University. Without their support and commitment, we would not have enough financial resources to initiate this project.

There are too many to count however some of them we would like to mention--- Mr. Ajaz Ul Haq, Lecturer and Mr. Abdul Karim, Librarian at China Study Centre, Karakoram International University; Mr. Abdullah Rahimi, Graphic Designer at Karakoram International University; Essa Wali, Web Developer at Karakoram International University, and all our colleagues at the Department of Economics, Karakoram International University.

We would like to thank the contributors and reviewers for their rigorous and painstaking contribution to the book.

Last but not least, we are grateful for our family and friends for their patience, emotional support and encouragement.
